CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS
NORTHERN NEW ENGLAND DISTRICT COUNCIL OF THE ASSEMBLIES OF GOD

PREAMBLE

WE BELIEVE

That God's purpose concerning man finds fulfillment in a priority reason-for-being: 1) to be an agency of God for evangelizing the world; 2) to be a corporate body in which many may worship God; 3) to be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son, and 4) to be a people who demonstrate God's love and compassion for all the world.

That The Northern New England District Council of the Assemblies of God exists expressly to give continuing emphasis to this reason-for-being in the New Testament apostolic pattern by teaching and encouraging believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit, which enables them to evangelize in the power of the Spirit with accompanying supernatural signs, adding a necessary dimension to worshipful relationship with God and enabling them to respond to the full working of the Holy Spirit in expression of fruit, gifts and ministries as in New Testament times for the edifying of the body of Christ.

Therefore, we recognize ourselves to be a cooperative fellowship of Pentecostal, Spirit-baptized saints from local Pentecostal Assemblies of like precious faith in the Northern New England District of The General Council of the Assemblies of God, hereinafter called "General Council", whose purpose is neither to usurp authority over the various local assemblies, not to deprive them of their scriptural and local rights and privileges; but to recognize and promote scriptural methods and order for worship, unity, fellowship, work, and business for God, so that results of our efforts may be conserved and assemblies established and developed along the line of our distinctive testimony; and to disapprove unscriptural methods, doctrines, and conduct, endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, "Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ" (Ephesians 4:13).

CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I. NAME

Section 1. Corporate Name

The name of this body is The Northern New England District Council of the Assemblies of God.

Section 2. District Organization

The term Northern New England District refers to the district organization.

Section 3. District Council

The term District Council refers to sessions of the corporation.

ARTICLE II. TERRITORY

This District includes the states of Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont and may be divided into Sections at the discretion of the annual District Council.

ARTICLE III. RELATIONSHIP

This Council is an integral part of The General Council of the Assemblies of God, with headquarters at Springfield, Missouri; therefore, the principles of voluntary unity and cooperative fellowship as set forth in the Constitution of the General Council are the principles which shall govern this District Council.

ARTICLE IV. TENETS OF FAITH

The Northern New England District shall stand for the Holy Scriptures as our all-sufficient rule for faith and practice. Hence the Statement of Fundamental Truths approved by the General Council of the Assemblies of God Constitution and Bylaws, Article V., is intended as a basis of fellowship among us (i.e., that we all speak the same thing, 1 Corinthians 1:10; Acts 2:42).

ARTICLE V. STATEMENT OF FUNDAMENTAL TRUTHS

The Bible is our all-sufficient rule for faith and practice. This Statement of Fundamental Truths is intended simply as a basis of fellowship among us (i.e., that we all speak the same thing, Acts 2:42; 1 Corinthians 1:10). The phraseology employed in this statement is not inspired or contended for, but the truth set forth is held to be essential to a full-gospel ministry. No claim is made that it contains all biblical truth, only that it covers our need as to these fundamental doctrines.

1. The Scriptures Inspired

The Scriptures, both the Old and New Testaments, are verbally inspired of God and are the revelation of God to man, the infallible, authoritative rule of faith and conduct (2 Timothy 3:15-17; 1 Thessalonians 2:13; 2 Peter 1:21).

2. The One True God

The one true God has revealed himself as the eternally self-existent "I AM," the Creator of heaven and earth and the Redeemer of mankind. He has further revealed himself as embodying the principles of relationship and association as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit (Deuteronomy 6:4; Isaiah 43:10,11; Matthew 28:19; Luke 3:22).

THE ADORABLE GODHEAD

(a) Terms Defined

The terms trinity and persons, as related to the Godhead, while not found in the Scriptures, are words in harmony with Scriptures, whereby we may convey to others our immediate understanding of the doctrine of Christ respecting the Being of God, as distinguished from "gods many and lords many." We therefore may speak with propriety of the Lord our God, who is One Lord, as a Trinity or as one Being of three persons, and still be absolutely scriptural (examples, Matthew 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14; John 14:16,17).

(b) Distinction and Relationship in the Godhead

Christ taught a distinction of persons in the Godhead which He expressed in specific terms of relationship, as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit but that this distinction and relationship, as to its mode is inscrutable and incomprehensible, because unexplained (Luke 1:35; 1 Corinthians 1:24; Matthew 11:25-27; 28:19; 2 Corinthians 13:14; 1 John 1:3,4).

(c) Unity of the One Being of Father, Son, and Holy Spirit

Accordingly, therefore, there is that in the Father which constitutes Him the Father and not the Son; there is that in the Son which constitutes Him the Son and not the Father; and there is that in the Holy Spirit which constitutes Him the Holy Spirit and not either the Father or the Son. Wherefore the Father is the Begetter; the Son is the Begotten; and the Holy Spirit is the One proceeding from the Father and the Son. Therefore, because these three persons in the Godhead are in a state of unity, there is but one Lord God Almighty and His name one (John 1:18; 15:26; 17:11,21; Zechariah 14:9).

(d) Identity and Cooperation in the Godhead

The Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit are never identical as to persons; nor confused as to relation; nor divided in respect to the Godhead; nor opposed as to cooperation. The Son is in the Father and the Father is in the Son as to relationship. The Son is with the Father and the Father is with the Son, as to fellowship. The Father is not from the Son, but the Son is from the Father, as to authority. The Holy Spirit is from the Father and the Son proceeding, as to nature, relationship, cooperation and authority. Hence no person in the Godhead either exists or works separately or independently of the others (John 5:17-30,32,37; 8:17,18).

(e) The Title, Lord Jesus Christ

The appellation Lord Jesus Christ is a proper name. It is never applied in the New Testament either to the Father or to the Holy Spirit. It therefore belongs exclusively to the Son of God. (Romans 1:1-3,7; 2 John 3).

(f) The Lord Jesus Christ, God with us

The Lord Jesus Christ, as to His divine and eternal nature, is the proper and only Begotten of the Father, but as to His human nature, He is the proper Son of Man. He is, therefore, acknowledged to be both God and man; who because He is God and man, is "Immanuel," God with us. (Matthew 1:23; 1 John 4:2,10,14; Revelation 1:13,17).

(g) The Title, Son of God

Since the name Immanuel embraces both God and man, in the one person, our Lord Jesus Christ, it follows that the title Son of God describes His proper deity, and the title Son of Man, His proper humanity. Therefore, the title Son of God belongs to the order of eternity, and the title Son of Man to the order of time (Matthew 1:21-23; 2 John 3; 1 John 3:8; Hebrews 7:3; 1:1-13).

(h) Transgression of the Doctrine of Christ

Wherefore, it is a transgression of the doctrine of Christ to say that Jesus Christ derived the title Son of God solely from the fact of the Incarnation or because of His relation to the economy of redemption. Therefore, to deny that the Father is a real and eternal Father, and that the Son is a real and eternal son, is a denial of the distinction and relationship in the Being of God; a denial of the Father and the Son; and a displacement of the truth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh (2 John 9; John 1:1,2,14,18,29,49; 1 John 2:22,23; 4:1-5; Hebrews 12:2).

(i) Exaltation of Jesus Christ as Lord

The Son of God, or Lord Jesus Christ, having by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high, angels and principalities and powers having been made subject unto Him. And having been made both Lord and Christ, He sent the Holy Spirit that we, in the name of Jesus, might bow our knees and confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the Glory of God the Father until the end, when the Son shall become subject to the father that God may be all in all (Hebrews 1:3; 1 Peter 3:22; Acts 2:32-36; Romans 14:11; 1 Corinthians 15:24-28).

(j) Equal Honor to the Father and to the Son

Wherefore, since the Father has delivered all judgment unto the Son, it is not only the express duty of all in heaven and on earth to bow the knee, but it is an unspeakable joy in the Holy Spirit to ascribe unto the Son all the attributes of deity, and to give Him all the honor and glory contained in all the names and titles of the Godhead except those which express relationship (see paragraphs b, c, and d), and thus honor the Son even as we honor the Father (John 5:22,23; 1 Peter 1:8; Revelation 5:6-14; Philippians 2:8,9; Revelation 7:9,10; 4:8-11).

3. The Deity of the Lord Jesus Christ

The Lord Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God. The Scriptures declare:

- a. His virgin birth (Matthew 1:23; Luke 1:31,35).
- b. His sinless life (Hebrews 7:26; 1 Peter 2:22).
- c. His miracles (Acts 2:22; 10:38).
- d. His substitutionary work on the cross (1 Corinthians 15:3; 2 Corinthians 5:21).
- e. His bodily resurrection from the dead (Matthew 28:6; Luke 24:39; 1 Corinthians 15:4).
- f. His exaltation to the right hand of God (Acts 1:9,11; 2:33; Philippians 2:9-11; Hebrews 1:3).

4. The Fall of Man

Man was created good and upright; for God said, "Let us make man in our image, after our likeness." However, man by voluntary transgression fell and thereby incurred not only physical death but also spiritual death, which is separation from God (Genesis 1:26,27; 2:17; 3:6; Romans 5:12-19).

5. The Salvation of Man

Man's only hope of redemption is through the shed blood of Jesus Christ the Son of God.

a. Conditions to Salvation

Salvation is received through repentance toward God and faith toward the Lord Jesus Christ. By the washing of regeneration and renewing of the Holy Spirit, being justified by grace through faith, man becomes an heir of God according to the hope of eternal life (Luke 24:47; John 3:3; Romans 10:13-15; Ephesians 2:8; Titus 2:11; 3:5-7).

b. The Evidences of Salvation

The inward evidence of salvation is the direct witness of the Spirit (Romans 8:16). The outward evidence to all men is a life of righteousness and true holiness (Ephesians 4:24; Titus 2:12).

6. The Ordinances of the Church

a. Baptism in Water

The ordinance of baptism by immersion is commanded in the Scriptures. All who repent and believe on Christ as Savior and Lord are to be baptized. Thus they declare to the world that they have died with Christ and that they also have been raised with Him to walk in newness of life (Matthew 28:19; Mark 16:16; Acts 10^a47,48; Romans 6:4).

b. Holy Communion

The Lord's Supper, consisting of the elements--bread and the fruit of the vine--is the symbol expressing our sharing the divine nature of our Lord Jesus Christ (2 Peter 1:4); a memorial of His suffering and death (1 Corinthians 11:26); and a prophecy of His second coming (1 Corinthians 11:26); and is enjoined on all believers "till He comes!"

7. The Baptism in the Holy Spirit

All believers are entitled to and should ardently expect and earnestly seek the promise of the Father, the baptism in the Holy Spirit and fire, according to the command of our Lord Jesus Christ. This was the normal experience of all in the early Christian church. With it comes the endowment of power for life and service, the bestowment of the gifts and their uses in the work of the ministry (Luke 24:49; Acts 1:4,8; 1 Corinthians 12:1-31). This experience is distinct from and subsequent to the experience of the new birth (Acts 8:12-17; 10:44-46; 11:14-16; 15:7-9). With the baptism in the Holy Spirit come such experiences as an overflowing fullness of the Spirit (John 7:37-39; Acts 4:8), a deepened reverence for God (Acts 2:43, Hebrews 12:28), an intensified consecration to God and dedication to His work (Acts 2:42), and a more active love for Christ, for His Word, and for the lost (Mark 16:20).

8. The Initial Physical Evidence of the Baptism in the Holy Spirit

The baptism of believers in the Holy Spirit is witnessed by the initial physical sign of speaking with other tongues as the Spirit of God gives them utterance (Acts 2:4). The speaking in tongues in this instance is the same in essence as the gift of tongues (1 Corinthians 12:4-10,28), but different in purpose and use.

9. Sanctification

Sanctification is an act of separation from that which is evil and of dedication unto God (Romans 12:1,2; 1 Thessalonians 5:23; Hebrews 13:12). Scriptures teach a life of "holiness without which no man shall see the Lord" (Hebrews 12:14). By the power of the Holy Spirit, we are able to obey the command: "Be ye holy, for I am holy" (1 Peter 1:15,16).

Sanctification is realized in the believer by recognizing his identification with Christ in His death and resurrection, and by faith reckoning daily upon the fact of that union, and by offering every faculty continually to the dominion of the Holy Spirit (Romans 6:1-11,13; 8:1,2,13; Galatians 2:20; Philippians 2:12,13; 1 Peter 1:5).

10. The Church and Its Mission

The Church is the body of Christ, the habitation of God through the Spirit, with divine appointments for the fulfillment of her great commission. Each believer, born of the Spirit, is an integral part of the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven (Ephesians 1:22,23; 2:22; Hebrews 12:23).

Since God's purpose concerning man is to seek and to save that which is lost, to be worshiped by man, and to build a body of believers in the image of His Son, the priority reason-for-being of the Assemblies of God as part of the Church is:

- a. To be an agency of God for evangelizing the world (Acts 1:8; Matthew 28:19,20; Mark 16:15,16).
- b. To be a corporate body in which man may worship God (1 Corinthians 12:13).
- c. To be a channel of God's purpose to build a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11-16; 1 Corinthians 12:28; 14:12).
- d. To be a people who demonstrate God's love and compassion for all the world (Psalm 112:9; Galatians 2:10; 6:10; James 1:27).

The Assemblies of God exists expressly to give continuing emphasis to this reason-for-being in the New Testament apostolic pattern by teaching and encouraging believers to be baptized in the Holy Spirit.

- a. Enables them to evangelize in the power of the Spirit with accompanying supernatural signs (Mark 16:15-20; Acts 4:29-31; Hebrews 2:3,4).
- b. Adds a necessary dimension to a worshipful relationship with God (1 Corinthians 2:10-16; 1 Corinthians 12-14).
- c. Enables them to respond to the full working of the Holy Spirit in expression of fruit and gifts and ministries as in New Testament times for the edifying of the body of Christ (Galatians 5:22-26; 1 Corinthians 14:12; Ephesians 4:11,12; 1 Corinthians 12:28; Colossians 1:29).

11. The Ministry

A divinely called and scripturally ordained ministry has been provided by our Lord for the fourfold purpose of leading the Church in: (1) evangelization of the world (Mark 16:15-20), (2) worship of God (John 4:23,24), (3) building a body of saints being perfected in the image of His Son (Ephesians 4:11,16), and (4) meeting human need with ministries of love and compassion (Psalm 112:9; Galatians 2:10; 6:10; James 1:27).

12. Divine Healing

Divine healing is an integral part of the gospel. Deliverance from sickness is provided for in the Atonement and is the privilege of all believers (Isaiah 53:4,5; Matthew 8:16,17; James 5:14-16).

13. The Blessed Hope

The resurrection of those who have fallen asleep in Christ and their translation together with those who are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord is the imminent and blessed hope of the Church (1 Thessalonians 4:16,17; Romans 8:23; Titus 2:13; 1 Corinthians 15:51,52).

14. The Millennial Reign of Christ

The second coming of Christ includes the rapture of the saints, which is our blessed hope, followed by the visible return of Christ with His saints to reign on the earth for one thousand years (Zechariah 14:5; Matthew 24:27,30; Revelation 1:7; 19:11-14; 20:1-6). This millennial reign will bring the salvation of national Israel (Ezekiel 37:21,22; Zephaniah 3:19,20; Romans 11:26,27) and the establishment of universal peace (Isaiah 11:6-9; Psalm 72:3-8; Micah 4:3,4).

15. The Final Judgment

There will be a final judgment in which the wicked dead will be raised and judged according to their works. Whosoever is not found written in the Book of Life, together with the devil and his angels, the beast and the false prophet, will be consigned to everlasting punishment in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death (Matthew 25:46; Mark 9:43-48; Revelation 19:20; 20:11-15; 21:8).

16. The New Heavens and the New Earth

"We, according to His promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness" (2 Peter 3:13; Rev. 21,22).

ARTICLE VI. PREROGATIVES

Section 1. Priorities

- a. To encourage and promote the evangelization of the world.
- b. To encourage and promote the worship of God.
- c. To encourage and promote the edification of believers.
- d. To provide a basis of fellowship among Christians of like precious faith.
- e. To supervise all the activities of the Assemblies of God in its prescribed field in accordance with the rights conferred by Article X. of the General Council Constitution.
- f. To establish and maintain such subdivisions, departments and institutions as may be necessary for the propagation of the Gospel and the work of the Pentecostal fellowship.
- g. To establish churches and provide for their development.
- h. To examine individuals who desire Ordination, License to Preach and Certificate of Ministry credentials, who meet the standards of the Scriptures, (2 Timothy 3:1-7; Titus 1:5-9) and the requirements of the District and the General Councils as set forth in their constitution and bylaws, sending their recommendation to the General Council Credentials Committee for final approval.
- i. To approve scriptural teachings, and practices, and to disapprove unscriptural teachings, and practices. A list of disapproved doctrines and practices is set forth in Articles IX and X of the General Council of the Assemblies of God Bylaws and is incorporated herein by reference. As a creature of The General Council of the Assemblies of God, it is subordinate thereto, and cannot be authorized in any way, to violate the principles of The General Council of the Assemblies of God constitutional agreements or bylaws. In the prosecution of the work in its prescribed field, the General Council shall be expected to keep vigilant watch against any violation of the principles of spiritual unity and cooperative fellowship to which the Assemblies of God Fellowship is especially and unalterably dedicated.
- j. To elect its own officers and committees, to arrange for its own meetings, and to govern itself.
- k. Incidental to, or in connection therewith, it shall have the right to own, hold in trust, use, sell, convey, mortgage, lease, or otherwise dispose of such property as may be needed for the prosecution of its work.

ARTICLE VII. MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Ministers

All Ordained and Licensed ministers and Certified Ministers holding accredited fellowship certificates from the General Council and having their permanent residence within the boundaries of the District, evangelists, District ministers serving at headquarters, those teaching at or attending colleges or Bible schools or serving as missionaries, retired ministers, or those serving in the armed services or chaplaincy, are considered members of The Northern New England District Council of the Assemblies of God.

Section 2. Assembly

All local affiliated Assemblies and members of these churches will be recognized as members of The Northern New England District Council of the Assemblies of God.

ARTICLE VIII. OFFICERS

Section 1. Executive Officers.

The Executive Officers shall consist of the Superintendent, the Assistant Superintendent(s) and the Secretary-Treasurer.

Section 2. Board of Directors

The Executive Officers, by virtue of their office, shall constitute the Board of Directors of this religious non-profit corporation.

Section 3. Executive Presbytery.

The Executive Presbytery shall consist of the Superintendent, the Assistant Superintendent(s), the Secretary-Treasurer, and the Sectional Presbyters.

Section 4. General Presbyters.

The Northern New England District shall be represented on the General Council General Presbytery by three members; the District Superintendent, and two others, one of whom shall be an ordained pastor of a church located in the District, who shall be nominated by the District presbytery, and then presented to the District Council for ratification. The General Presbytery is the official policy making body of the General Council when the General Council is not in session (See Article IX, Section 3, General Council Constitution).

Section 5. Sectional Presbyters.

There shall be a Sectional Presbyter elected from each of the sections of the District.

Section 6. Assistant Sectional Presbyters.

There shall be at least one Assistant Sectional Presbyter appointed from each of the sections of the District.

Section 7. Executive Presbytery Nominees.

The Northern New England District Council shall nominate two ministers from its District, one of whom is not a full-time District Official, to be presented to the General Council as nominees from its area to serve on the Executive Presbytery of the General Council (See Article IX, Section 2a, General Council Constitution and Article II, Section 2c, General Council Bylaws).

ARTICLE IX. MEETINGS

Section 1. District Council.

The fiscal year of the Northern New England District Council shall be a calendar year of January 1 to December 31 and the Council in session shall convene annually. The time and place of the annual District Council shall be announced by the Executive Presbytery and published no later than one month prior to the time of the meeting.

Section 2. Special Sessions.

Special sessions may be called to meet any emergency that may arise within the District. Such a call shall be issued by the Secretary after the emergency has been fully considered and passed upon by a majority of the Executive Presbytery.

Section 3. Right to Call Special Sessions.

The right of initiative in the matter of calling a special session shall be granted to any ordained minister of the District Council. A statement setting forth the reason for the special session and signed by not less than twenty percent of the ordained ministers of the District may be considered sufficient reason for such a call; said statement to be filed with the Executive Presbytery, who shall issue the call, setting the time and place of the meeting.

ARTICLE X. DISSOLUTION CLAUSE

In the event this District Council shall cease to function for the purposes herein set forth, then all property, real or chattel, and all assets remaining after satisfying debts and obligations shall revert to the parent body, THE GENERAL COUNCIL OF THE ASSEMBLIES OF GOD, a Missouri, not-for-profit corporation, with headquarters in Springfield, Missouri. The General Council of the Assemblies of God shall have full authority to sell such property and to use the proceeds derived therefrom for the extension of the work of the Assemblies of God.

In the event of cessation of this District Council, its Board of Trustees (or Directors) shall transfer all properties and any remaining assets, in accordance with the foregoing provisions, within one year after the date of such cessation. If such transfer is not made within the time prescribed above or if the aforesaid General Council shall be unable or unwilling to accept the aforesaid transfer, the disposition thereof shall be made by the court of the county in which the District Council headquarters office is located, provided that in such case proceeds of the dissolution shall be distributed to organizations having purposes nearest the purpose of the Assemblies of God.

ARTICLE XI. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Constitution may be made at any regular or special session of the District Council, provided the proposed amendments have been submitted first to the Executive Presbytery for consideration, and then made available to each member of the District Council at least two months prior to the time of meeting. A two-thirds vote of all members present shall be necessary for adoption.

BYLAWS

ARTICLE I. MINISTRY

Section 1. Ministry Described.

Christ's gifts to the church include apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors and teachers (Ephesians 4:11), exhorters, administrators, leaders, and helpers (Romans 12:7,8).

In terms of maturity of ministry, three classifications of ministry are recognized viz., the ordained minister, the licensed minister and the certified minister. An applicant for ministerial recognition in the Fellowship of the District must give testimony to having received the new birth (John 3:5) and having been filled with the Holy Ghost, according to Acts 2:4.

Section 2. Basic Ministry Qualifications

The qualifications for all applicants for ministerial recognition shall conform to General Council Bylaws Article VII "Ministry" section 2, basic qualifications, subsection a-l.

Section 3. Specific Ministry Qualifications

a. Residency Requirements of all Applicants

Applicants for all credentials must reside in or hold credentials in the Northern New England District Council of the Assemblies of God and must appear before its credential's committee.

b. Other Requirements

All other requirements for credentials shall conform to the General Council Bylaws Article VII "Ministry" section 3, "Specific Qualifications" subsections b-d.

c. Time of Ordination.

All ordinations shall take place at the District Council meetings. Exceptions to the rule may be made in special cases of missionaries who must travel to foreign fields between meetings of the Council. Other exceptions may be granted by the Credentials Committee when special conditions warrant.

d. Credentials.

(1) All Certificates shall be issued from the office of the General Council of the Assemblies of God at the request of the Credentials Committee. Fellowship certificates, certifying good standing are issued annually upon completion of the ministerial questionnaire and approval of the District Credentials Committee.

(2) When a minister takes up residence in another District, a Certificate of Transfer shall be issued within sixty days, unless there are definite charges pending against him. Exceptions may be made according to General Council bylaws Article VII "Ministry" section 9 "Transfer of Credentials" paragraph a "Certificate of Transfer" subparagraphs 1-9.

(3) A minister who shall withdraw from active ministry shall be expected to notify the District Secretary who shall be authorized to remove his name and to place it upon an inactive list.

(4) In order to maintain active status, ordained ministers shall be engaged in viable ministry and proclamation of the gospel except in case of disability, retirement, or other valid circumstances. (See Article VII, Section 3, General Council Bylaws)

e. Ministerial Relations

(1) All ministers shall be amenable to both the District Council and the General Council in matters of doctrine, conduct and practice.

(2) All ordained ministers moving into this District to reside, shall be expected to affiliate with the District Council and to cooperate therewith. They shall obtain a Certificate of Transfer from their former District, to be presented to the Secretary of this District.

(3) A pastor planning on leaving an assembly should give that assembly thirty days notice and should also notify his Presbyter and District Superintendent as soon as possible.

(4) All discourteous conduct is disapproved and all ministers are advised against interfering with pastors in charge of assemblies, whether it be by going in upon their work without consent, or by such communications with members of the assembly as will hurt the influence of the leader.

(5) Ministers affiliated with other denominations, and desiring to enter the fellowship of the Assemblies of God, shall be required to show that their character is above question and their purpose to sever their former relationship is honorable. The ordination of such ministers in the Fellowship from which they may have come may be recognized by the District Council.

f. Discipline of Members

Disciplinary action for violations of Assemblies of God principles will be governed by the General Council Bylaws Article X "Discipline" section 3 "Causes of Disciplinary Action."

ARTICLE II. LOCAL ASSEMBLIES

Section 1. Recognition

a. All true Pentecostal Christians associating themselves in local bodies as churches shall have the right of recognition by the District Council provided that they meet the standards approved by the General Council and the District Council in regard to membership, doctrine, order, methods, conduct and all other matters, affecting the harmony of the Fellowship as a whole.

b. Before any designated groups can be recognized as a District Council or General Council Affiliated church, a thorough study shall be made to determine whether they meet the qualifications stipulated in the Constitution and Bylaws of The General Council and the Northern New England District Council of the Assemblies of God.

Section 2. Classification

a. Parent Affiliated Churches

Provision shall be made for parent affiliated assemblies which shall be under the supervision of a parenting church, in accordance with the parenting church's constitution and bylaws.

b. District Council Affiliated Assemblies

(1) District Council Affiliated Assemblies are recognized groups of Christians desiring affiliation with the Northern New England District or existing churches who fail to meet the minimum requirements of General Council affiliated status and are governed by the Constitution and Bylaws provided by the District.

(2) They shall be under the general supervision of the Executive Presbytery who shall provide pastoral care and other needed guidance, until such time they give evidence of sufficient maturity and membership to qualify for General Council affiliation.

(3) They shall incorporate themselves under the provisions of their respective states.

(4) They shall be given a Certificate of District Affiliation by the District office.

c. General Council Affiliated Assemblies

(1) It shall be the responsibility of the Executive Presbytery to determine when an Assembly has reached a state of growth, stability, and maturity qualifying it for affiliation with The General Council of the Assemblies of God. Qualifications shall include a minimum active voting membership of 20 persons. The assembly shall have matured to a point where a sufficient number of qualified persons are available for the offices called for in its constitution and bylaws. It may make application to the District Executive Presbytery for General Council affiliation. (See Article XI Section 1 General Council Bylaws)

(2) They shall be set in order by the District officary, and shall be amenable to the District in doctrine, in conduct, and in all other matters which affect the peace and harmony of the Fellowship.

(3) They shall have the right to choose their own pastor and elect officers.

(4) They shall incorporate themselves under the provisions of their respective states and hold property either by trustees or the corporate name and transact all other business pertaining to its life as a local church.

(5) They shall have a standard of membership which shall be determined by agreement with the District Council and shall have the privilege of disciplining members according to such standard.

(6) They shall receive a certificate of General Council Affiliation from Springfield, Missouri.

(7) Assemblies which cannot retain their status as a General Council Affiliated church, by virtue of any General Council ruling, shall revert to District Affiliated status. (Article XI. Section 5. General Council Bylaws).

(8) The District Council recognizes the sovereignty of the local Assembly in accordance with Article XI of the General Council Constitution. Affiliation with the District shall in no wise destroy this sovereignty.

Section 3. Privileges

a. Each District Council and General Council Assembly shall have the right to representation in the District and Sectional Council meetings by at least one lay delegate. Each lay delegate shall secure a letter, or delegate form provided by the District, signed by the secretary or pastor of the Assembly certifying to his/her appointment to represent the Assembly in the Council meeting. This letter should be presented to the Roster Committee of the District Council while in session.

b. It shall be the privilege of all Assemblies to have the advice and help of the Executive Presbytery in all vital matters that affect them. They shall have the privilege of securing the services of accredited pastors, evangelists and missionaries, and as many other benefits as may be made possible through the Assemblies of God Fellowship.

c. They shall have access to all benefits of the departments of the District.

Section 4. Duties

a. It shall be the duty of all Assemblies to maintain scriptural order in doctrine and conduct, and to be amenable to the District in all matters affecting the peace and harmony of the Fellowship. Should difficulties arise within the Assembly, it should confer with the Executive Presbytery for advice and/or relief.

b. When in need of pastor or pastoral change, the local assembly shall seek the advice and assistance of the District Superintendent.

c. Pastors and Assemblies shall deny the pulpit to ministers without proper credentials, until investigation be made. (See General Council Bylaws Article VI Section 3)

d. Local Assemblies are expected to support and participate in the missionary program of the District Council and General Council.

e. They shall assume their cooperative share in the expenses of the District by contributing at least one percent of their General Fund income, as part of their budget.

Section 5. Organizational assistance

a. General Council Affiliated Assembly: The services of the district council are available to assist the General Council affiliated church in dealing with any of its problems, either internal or external, when requested by the pastor or a majority of the official board of the church or a petition signed by 30 percent of the voting members, with the petitioning process and delivery to the district council taking no more than 30 days in total to complete.

District officers shall respond by investigating problems and, if necessary, recommending remedial actions to the responsible district governing entity, (e.g., district presbytery or district executive presbytery). At its discretion, that governing entity may act to bring the church under district supervision and, when necessary, revert it from General Council status to district affiliated status until the governing entity considers the problem resolved. (See General Council Bylaws Article VI Section 4 subsection c)

b. District Council Affiliated Assembly: If requested by the Pastor and/or a member of the official board of the Church or a petition signed by 20 percent of the voting members.

ARTICLE III. OFFICERS AND ELECTION

Section 1. Qualifications

The officers of this Council shall be ordained ministers of mature experience, sound judgment, recognized ability and Christian character and shall have proven themselves faithful in financially contributing to the District as required. They shall be chosen from the membership and shall have been ministering within the District for at least one year.

Section 2. Voting Constituency

a. Voting Members

(1) District Council: The voting constituency shall be all accredited members present and registered. This shall include ordained and licensed ministers, department leaders, and delegates of District and General Council Affiliated Assemblies.

(2) Sectional Council: The voting constituency shall be all accredited members present and registered. This shall include ordained, licensed, and certified ministers who live within the section, delegates of District and General Council affiliated assemblies.

(a) Exception: Ministers who reside in one section but pastor or serve on the staff of a church located in another section shall be required to be a member of the section in which the church is located.

b. Delegate Authorization for District and Sectional Councils

Each delegate chosen by these Assemblies must have a letter of authorization or delegate form signed by the Secretary or Pastor of these Assemblies, certifying their appointment to represent the assembly in the Council meeting. This letter shall be presented to the Roster Committee of the Council while in session.

c. Delegates

Each assembly shall be entitled to one delegate for each 25 adult voting members or fraction thereof. Assemblies with less than 25 adult voting members shall be entitled to one delegate.

Section 3. Nominations and Elections

a. Executive Officers.

(1). Superintendent

All candidates for the office shall be nominated by secret ballot. All withdrawals should be made prior to the elective ballot. To qualify as a candidate for this office, the nominee shall have served as a lead pastor with proven ministry experience. Any individuals who are named on the nominating ballot and who are not in attendance will have their names removed, unless they have given prior notification to an executive officer of their willingness to accept such a nomination. All names thus presented shall be balloted upon until a candidate shall have received a two-thirds majority of all votes cast. If an election is not declared on the third elective ballot, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes on the third ballot shall be the only nominees to be voted upon until an election is declared.

(2). Other Executive Officers

Other Executive officers shall be appointed by the District Superintendent and ratified by two-thirds majority vote of the Executive Presbytery.

b. Sectional Presbyters

Sectional Presbyters shall be an ordained senior pastor in their respective sections at least one (1) year in order to qualify for election. They shall be nominated in the annual Sectional Council session by ministers and delegates from churches in the section. Delegates must be duly accredited by letters or delegate forms from the secretaries of the churches they represent. Nomination shall be by secret ballot. Any individuals who are named on the nominating ballot and who are not in attendance will have their names removed, unless they have given prior notification to an executive officer of their willingness to accept such a nomination. Voting shall continue until one nominee shall receive a two-thirds majority of votes cast. If an election is not declared on the third elective ballot, the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes on the third ballot shall be the only nominees to be voted upon until an election is declared. Nominations so made shall be presented to the District Council, and each Sectional Presbyter shall be ratified individually by a two-thirds vote of the Council.

c. Assistant Sectional Presbyters

Assistant Sectional Presbyter(s) shall be appointed by the Sectional Presbyter. They shall be an ordained senior pastor in their respective sections at least one (1) year in order to qualify for appointment. Appointments so made shall be presented to the Executive Presbytery, and each Assistant Presbyter shall be ratified individually by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Presbytery.

d. Sectional Secretary/Treasurer

A Secretary/Treasurer shall be appointed by the Sectional Presbyter. Candidates for this office must be a credential holder and have been a member of the section at least six months. Appointments so made shall be presented to the Executive Presbytery, and each Secretary/Treasurer shall be ratified individually by a two-thirds vote of the Presbytery.

e. Terms of Office

(1) The term of office for Superintendent shall be for four (4) year. The Superintendent shall commence his/her duties July 1.

(2) The term of office for the other executive officers shall run concurrent with that of the District Superintendent, unless they have been in office less than two years in which case they would finish no less than a two year term.

(3) The term of office for Sectional Presbyter shall be for two years. Four (4) of the eight (8) sections will hold elections in one year, the other four (4) sections the next. They shall commence their duties upon ratification by the District Council.

(4) The term of office of Assistant Sectional Presbyter(s) and Sectional Secretary/Treasurer shall run concurrent with the Sectional Presbyter. They shall commence their duties upon ratification by the Executive Presbytery, unless they are ratified in the presbytery meeting prior to District Council in which case their duties would commence at the same time as the sectional presbyter.

f. Vacancies of Executive Presbyters

(1) Should the office of Superintendent become vacant through resignation, removal from District, death, or disqualification, the Executive Presbytery shall appoint one of the Assistant Superintendents to fill the vacated office until the next regular meeting of the District Council. Any office may be declared vacant by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Presbytery.

(2) Should a vacancy occur in one of the offices of Sectional Presbyter through resignation, removal from District, death, or disqualification, a special meeting of the section in which the vacancy occurs will be called for the purpose of nominating a replacement to be ratified by the Executive Presbytery to fill the office until the next meeting of the District Council. Said vacancy is to be filled within 60 days, the meeting to be properly warned at least three weeks in advance. Any office may be declared vacant by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Presbytery.

g. Vacancies of Other Sectional Officers

Should a vacancy occur in the offices of Assistant Sectional Presbyter or Sectional Secretary Treasurer, the sectional presbyter has the ability to appoint a replacement sectional officer to be ratified by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Presbytery. Any office may be declared vacant by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Presbytery.

f. To have District records audited by a committee or public accountant annually.

Section 5. Executive Presbytery

a. The Executive Presbytery shall have the general oversight of the activities of the District during the interim between Council sessions. It shall be authorized to act for the District in all emergency matters that affect its interest and to execute decisions. It shall arrange for its own meetings and its decisions shall be final. A majority present at any meeting of the Executive Presbytery shall constitute a quorum.

b. Before final action can be taken by the Executive Presbytery on vitally important matters pertaining to the whole District, each section, through its Presbyter, shall be given the opportunity to discuss and make recommendations concerning said actions. A summary report of all important actions taken by the Executive Presbytery pertaining to the interests of the District, shall be given at each District Council session.

c. The Executive Presbytery shall assist the Superintendent in the oversight of the fellowship meetings, in other District matters and in making investigations.

d. The Executive Presbytery shall act as a Credentials Committee. (See Article V, Section 2, District Bylaws)

e. Appointed executive officers shall have voice and no vote on the Executive Presbytery.

Section 6. General Presbyters

The General Presbyters shall officially represent the District at all General Council sessions and gatherings of the General Council Presbytery and shall draw from the Northern New England District General fund such amounts as are deemed necessary to adequately cover their traveling expenses.

Section 7. Sectional and Assistant Presbyters

a. Sectional Presbyter

(1) To be head of all sectional functions and Chairman of the fellowship meetings in his respective section.

(2) To be an ex-officio member of all committees in his section.

(3) To assist pastors or assemblies desiring advice or aid, and if unable to resolve the matter, to refer it to the District Superintendent or the Executive Presbytery for final disposition.

(4) To attend all meetings of the Executive Presbytery.

(5) To perform such other functions as may be customary to his/her office.

b. Assistant Sectional Presbyter

(1) In the event of the absence of the Sectional Presbyter, an Assistant Presbyter chosen by the Sectional Presbyter shall assume the same duties of the Sectional Presbyter for the duration of the absence.

(2) To perform such other functions as may be customary to their office.

ARTICLE V. DIRECTORS AND DEPARTMENT LEADERS

Section 1. Appointment

Section 4. Rules of Order

In order to expedite the work of the Council and to avoid confusion in its deliberations, the Council shall be governed by Roberts Rules of Order, newly revised, all in keeping with the spirit of Christian love and fellowship.

ARTICLE VIII. DISTRICT SECTIONAL DIVISIONS

Section 1. Purpose

The District shall be divided into geographical Sections to promote Home Missions, unite sectional activities and afford opportunity for fellowship and mutual counsel for the ministry of the sections.

Section 2. Sections

The names of the eight sections shall be as follows: Aroostook Section, Northern Section, North Central Section, Central Section, White Mountain Section, Southeast Section, Northwest Section and Southwest Section.

Section 3. Sectional Boundaries

The boundaries of the respective sections (including assignment or reassignment of churches therein) shall be established at the discretion of the Executive Presbytery, (either by request of affected local church(es) or to better serve the overall needs of fellowship, travel, and communication within a section), and shall be ratified by the District Council.

ARTICLE IX. DEPARTMENTS

Section 1. Existence

The District Superintendent with the Executive Presbytery shall have the prerogative to create, alter, or eliminate departments as deemed necessary by ministry demands. All such decisions shall be confirmed by a two-third majority vote of the Executive Presbytery.

Section 2. Policy Manual

a. The specific details of each department's makeup and operation shall be outlined in the District policy manual. The original policy manual and subsequent changes must be approved by the Executive Presbytery.

b. The Executive Presbytery are free to change the policy manual(s) at will by a 2/3 majority vote of the Executive Presbytery.

c. All District credential holders and department volunteers will be held accountable to follow and adhere to the policies set forth for each department by the Executive Presbytery.

ARTICLE X. MISSIONS

Recognizing our obligation to fulfill the Great Commission (Mark 16:15; Acts 1:8), we shall endeavor by all proper and scriptural means to promote World Missions both at home and abroad.

Section 1. Foreign Missions Department

a. Purpose

To reach the unevangelized people of the world. The District encourages all Assemblies to provide for regular offerings through the various departments of each church, and cooperate with the Missions Department of the General Council in its world outreach.

b. Structure

The District Superintendent shall oversee the Foreign Missions Department of the District.

(1) Mission department shall assist missionaries who desire to come to our District:

(2) Finances

This department shall be supported by five percent (5%) of the offerings received by missionaries who minister in our District.

Section 2. Home Missions Department

a. Missions Advance Northern New England District. This term refers to the Church planting and revitalization program of Northern New England formulated to reach the unevangelized of our District, by planting new churches or revitalizing current churches.

b. Chi Alpha Campus Ministries. This term refers to Chi Alpha ministries within our district that are in conjunction with our national Chi Alpha Campus Ministries.

c. Teen Challenge. This term refers to Teen Challenge ministries within our district that are in conjunction with our national Teen Challenge Ministries.

d. Institutional Chaplaincy. This term refers to our ministry within institutions such as hospitals, prisons, and other institutions that allow for chaplains.

e. Deaf Ministry. This term refers to our ministry to the deaf community.

f. Other Specialized Ministries. This term refers to any other district sponsored program that may come under Home Missions.

ARTICLE XI. FINANCES AND PROPERTY

Section 1. Finances

a. General Fund

(1) The District Council Fund shall be available for the support of the District officers, the District Council office, traveling expenses and other necessary District expense except that directly associated with Home Missions. All other funds sent to the District office are to be disbursed under the supervision of the Executive Presbytery.

(2) We believe that an individual relinquishes all rights to direct the use of the tithe or offering once the gift has been made. 1 Corinthians 16:2; 2 Corinthians 9:6-7; Ephesians 4:28; Genesis 14:20; Proverbs 3:9-10; Acts 4:34-37; 1 Timothy 5:17-18; Galatians 6:6; 1 John 3:17.

b. Ministers' Tithes

(1) It is required that all Ordained, Licensed, and Certified Ministers contribute a sum of money equivalent to eighty-five percent (85%) of their tithes from both ministerial and secular income, sending it at least once a month to the District office. It is recommended that ministers working outside the District contribute a sum of money equivalent to fifty percent (50%) of their tithes and that evangelists working among us leave part of their tithes in the District. Each candidate for credentials and all transferring into the District shall receive this information stating their financial obligations to the District.

(2) Senior Ministers

(a) Senior-active and senior-semiretired ministers shall continue to designate the required amount of support to the District office as set forth in Bylaw Article XI, Section 1. b. 1.

(b) Senior retired ministers shall be free to distribute as they desire the portion of their tithes previously paid to the District office.

c. Assembly Tithe to District

Each assembly shall assume its cooperative share in the expenses of the District by contributing at least one percent (1%) of their General Fund income to the District Treasurer for the support of the District General Fund.

e. Delinquent Ministers' Tithes

The District Treasurer shall contact any and all credential holders of the Northern New England District Council who after two successive months fail to send the appropriate portion of tithes as agreed. If the issue is not resolved, the credential holder shall appear in person before the Executive Presbytery.

f. Estimation of Operational Income and Expenses

An estimate of operational income and expenses shall be presented semi-annually to the Executive Presbytery.

(1) The Executive Presbytery shall review and act upon these estimates of operational income and expenses prior to the annual District Council meeting and a copy shall be printed in the Council brochure.

(2) Authorizations to increase spending levels or to transfer funds within the approved estimates shall rest with the Executive Presbytery or with a regular or specially called District Council.

(3) The Executive Presbytery shall be authorized to appropriate funds for emergency repairs to District property. If cash resources are not available for this emergency appropriation, the Presbytery shall be authorized to use its power to borrow the necessary funds.

Section 2. Property

a. The Executive Presbytery shall constitute a Board of Trustees.

b. All property of the District shall be deeded to and held by the trustees legally elected by the District and their successors in office. The purchase and disposal of all real property of the District by sale, lease, mortgage, or other means, with the exception of those properties used by local churches such as church property, buildings, parsonages, and other equipment shall first have been recommended by a two-thirds vote of the Northern New England District Council of the Assemblies of God at a regular or special meeting. The Superintendent and Secretary of the District shall certify in such conveyance, lease or mortgage, that the same has been duly authorized and recommended by a vote of the said District Council. Such certificate shall be held to be conclusive evidence thereof. If properties abutting the District headquarters becomes available and in the judgment of the Presbytery the purchase of such properties would be advantageous for future development, and whereas, delay in waiting or calling a special Council for that purpose would undermine the purchase of that property, the Executive Presbytery be authorized to act on behalf of the District on such a proposal. A two-thirds vote of the Presbytery would be required for approval.

c. The disposal of all aforementioned properties may be made by action of the Executive Presbytery. When it shall be the prerogative of the Executive Presbytery to buy, sell or exchange such properties for the purpose of advancing the cause of missions and establishing new churches, such sale, purchase or exchange shall be for District benefit only, and no private gain may be derived therefrom.

ARTICLE XII. MILITARY SERVICE

As a movement we affirm our loyalty to the government of the United States in war or peace.

We shall continue to insist, as we have historically, on the right of each member to choose for himself whether to declare his position as a combatant, a noncombatant, or a conscientious objector.

ARTICLE XIII. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Bylaws may be made at any regular or specially called meeting of the District Council, provided the proposed amendments have been submitted first to the Executive Presbytery for consideration, and then made available to each member of the District Council at least one month prior to the time of meeting. Amendments to be adopted shall require a two-thirds majority of all votes cast.
